OUR ALMA MATER.

We are happy to announce the continued prosperity of our Alma Mater. The year succeeding the "Golden Wedding" has indeed been propitious for Old Hamilton. Notwithstanding the war times, the friends of the Institution have proved their loyalty to its interests, and a new Professorship has been endowed. The College grounds fitly portray the elements of our growth and progress. The Campus, beautified as it is with hedges and flowers, and winding walks and carriage ways, not only welcomes the visitor, but invigorates the student. Here, the elms of the old world and the maples of the new, the silver firs of Siberia and the pines of Oregon "in harmony dwell"—a happy type of friendship and good will. Nature not only contributes to make our study-home pleasant and desirable, but we find in our Professors superior abilities blended with geniality.

But in the quiet of our seclusion we are not unmindful of the busy world without. Our "roll of honor" will show that within these walls is found material for fighting as well as thinking. Some of our companions have already fallen on the battle-field. No where are the daily papers more anxiously looked for; and as announcements of victory or defeat come from the scenes of strife, no where can the deep inspiration of true patriotism be more clearly seen than in the old College Chapel.

We of the Class of '63 leave our Alma Mater not without feelings of regret, yet we welcome the wide world. The first class in forty years to graduate no "second division men," we can only hope for like success in the future. With our ranks decimated, like those of "veteran regiments," and mourning the loss of a Bacon and a Turner, we go forth, and may the fond dreams of College days be realized.

OBITUARY.

Adjutant William K. Bacon, a member of the Senior Class, was killed at the battle of Fredericksburg, December 13th, 1862. No eulogy can adequately express the feelings of friendship with which Bacon was regarded while in College; nor did he hold a less enviable position as a scholar.

Connecting himself, as a private, with the first regiment that marched from our county, by intrinsic merit and unaided efforts, he arose at once to the position of Adjutant. In the battles of Cedar Mountain, Bull Run, (where he was wounded while gallantly leading his regiment against the enemy,) and Fredericksburg, he bore a conspicuous part. Fredericksburg was destined to be the close of a life so eventful. A rebel bullet at once deprived his country of a brave soldier, and an honored family of an only son. His funeral obsequies were attended at Utica, by an immense concourse, assembled to pay the last rites of respect to the youthful soldier.

On the 16th of December, 1862, in the engagement under Gen. Foster, at Goldsboro', N. C., Robert Turner, of the Class of '63, gave up his life for his country.

The remains of one so brilliant, so frank, so beautiful, intelligent, genial, earnest, ardent, now moulder beneath the hostile soil of Carolina, but his noble spirit has gone up above the din of the conflict, to meet its reward at the hand of the God of Battles. He fell as a private in the 24th N. Y. Artillery, fighting, not for honor, not for reward, but as a "Christian soldier!"

History may not carve his name on her tablets, but the name and memory of "Bob Turner" are already written in letters ineffaceable on the hearts of all who knew him.

On the 31st day of January, 1863, Sergt. George A. Watson, of the 112th Regiment of New York Volunteers, was killed in the battle of Blackwater.

Among the numerous volunteers from Hamilton College, who responded so nobly to the call of the President one year ago, he was the first of the class of '64 to seal his devotion to his country with his blood.

No man ever enlisted from a higher sense of duty, or endured more cheerfully the hardships incident to the soldier's life. A large circle of acquaintances deeply mourn his loss; and his quiet, unobtrusive goodness will never pass from the memory of his College friends.

William J. Cosnett, a member of the Class of '65, and a private in the 33d Regiment N. Y. S. V., fell pierced through the body by a ball from the enemy, at the second battle of Fredericksburg, May 3, 1863.

In the words of his Captain, "he died a glorious death, without a struggle, without a groan, in the front line, cheering on his comrades." He enlisted, fought, and gave up his life as a Christian patriot; and is now numbered among the "unreturning brave" of his Alma Mater. While in College he was known and loved by his classmates and friends for his firm Christian character and consistent life

ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIPS.

Soon after Dr. Goertner entered upon his important work in connection with the endowment of Hamilton College, the citizens of Utica undertook to secure a fund for the Professorship of Rhetoric and Elocution, and so far succeeded as to leave no doubt of their ultimate success. The Walcott fund for the Professor of Christian Evidences was soon after added, and is already fully available. In 1862 the Latin Professorship was established on a basis provided mainly by Simeon Benjamin, Esq., of Elmira, and Mrs. Sally Bates, of Ithaca. This year is signalized by the endowment of the Robinson Professorship of Greek, in honor of one of Hamilton's noblest sons. Twenty thousand dollars have been pledged for this object by friends of the College and of Christian scholarship in New York and its vicinity.

In speaking of endowments, we should not overlook the Maynard Professorship of Law, which gives to the course of instruction in Hamilton one of its peculiar and most valuable features. Our Alma Mater has now five endowed departments, and never before did her future look so bright. All honor to Dr. Goertner for his success in presenting the claims of Collegiate Education—a success that reminds us of words used by Daniel Webster in speaking of Alexander Hamilton: "He smote the rock of the national resources, and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth."

PRUYN MEDAL.

It is expected that the first of the Pruyn Medals will be ready for presentation at the close of Commencement day. It will be a gold medal, of the value of thirty-five dollars, and will carry on its face a bust of Alexander Hamilton, after whom the College was named, with this legend: "Fundatum a Johanni V. L. Pruyn, LL. D., A. D. 1862, A. H. C. Quinquagesimo, S. W. Fisher, S. T. D., Præside." The legend on the reverse will be as follows: "Decretum a Collegii Hamiltonensis Facultate Artium Johanni Jacobo Tunnicliff De Officiis Juvenum Cultorum Politicis in Oratione Præstanti, 1863." This legend will be surrounded by a motto taken from Demosthenes:—Οὐ τῷ πατρὶ καὶ τῇ μητρὶ μόνον, ἀλλὰ καὶ τῇ πατρίδι. "Not for father and mother alone, but also for father-land."

WM. J. BAKER'S

PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO,

12 TIBBITTS' BLOCK, UTICA, N. Y.

THE rapid growth and unexampled prosperity of this establishment are the best evidences of its popularity, and at the same time, of the quality of the portraits daily turned out to its patrons.

The proprietor is happy to announce that besides adding largely to his mechanical facilities, he has just concluded an engagement with Mr. J H. BUSHNELL, one of the oldest and most successful artists in the country, late of Philadelphia, where he has for many years been proprietor of the celebrated Root Gallery, and formerly with Mayall, of London, and Thompson, Paris. By thus adding to his own the experience of this gentleman, extended through the metropolises of three countries, Mr. Baker may be allowed to assure his customers that the productions of his gallery will henceforth be found of unapproachable excellence.
